Afterwards we will enter the reindeer enclosures where you feed our small ones, i.e. the reindeer calves. The reindeer will curiously come and eat out of your hand. Our guide will tell you more about the reindeer and work within reindeer herding.

You will be invited into a lávvu, i.e. Sámi tent where you will sit on reindeer skins around a sparkling fire and learn more about the indigenous people of Fennoscandia, i.e. the Sámi culture, history and our way of life.
